Table 3 - HDT.RP: Botanical transects of Concord's Great Meadow for Summer, 1859

Date	Location	Таха	Comment	Source
June 16				Journal J15f1-f3*Apr8 to June 10				Spt21 59, p. 103
	dry & hard bankby the river	June grass
		C. scoparia
		C. stellulata
		C. stricta
		C. Buxbaumii
	In the wet parts	pipes [equisitum fluvatile]	2 1/2 feet high
	·	C. lanuginosa
		C bullata(?) manile
		Eleocharis palustris
		Blue fumes	(a little just begins to show itself)
		Glyceria fluitans	here & there & out X
	[General, and] Island by Hunts Bridge	Phalaris americana (Canary grass)	just out XX The Island by Hunt's bridge is densely covered with it.

July 7				Journal J15f1-f3*Apr8 to Spt21 59, p. 128
	first or westerly parti.e. the firmer parts & the bank	sedges of different kind
		Red top [Agrostis alba] Fowl-meadow [Poa palustris &	(coloring the surface extensively) just begun to bloom & of a purplish lead-
		Clyceria stricta]	color, taller than the red-top
		Agrostis (perennans ? or scabra ??)	Slender purple-spiked panic [grass]
	In the wet, or main, part	various other sedges [C.] stellulata
		[C.] stellulata [C.] lanuginosa [C.] stricta wool grass	now in flower
		ap C. ampullceae var. ultriculata	thicker culmed than woolgrass but softer & not round a great part of the meadow	either this [ap C. ampuliceae var. ultricata]
		wood [sic., wool] grass lower dulichium	not in flower
		Eleocharis palustris

July 26				Journal J15f1-f3*Apr8 to July 20				Spt21 59, p. 190-191
	by the riverborder, or bank	red-top Agrostis scabra
	in the water parts	juncus scirpoides	now in its prime eleocharis palustris	long done
		rhyncospora alba	lately begun
	very wet places	buck bean	by itself elodea
	a greener stream	pipes
	some places by the Holt	yellowish-green ferns wool grass	brown-topped

Notes:

- (1) All are direct quotes.
- (2) Brackets indicate my text.

Boatman reference page 158